

Fine old porter drawn from the food; wine and liquor for family and medicinal use; champagne and cigars at W. E. Talbot's, the only reliable wholesale house in New Mexico.

NBDS OF NEWS.

There was a large attendance at the Opera house last night. Full election returns for Bernalillo county are not yet in.

Yesterday there was another of these disagreeable sand storms. Louis Peterson is making extensive repairs to the Boss saloon.

The Oasis was opened to the public last night and was well patronized. The Osborne's appeared in Albuquerque for the last time last night to a small house.

The Albuquerque postoffice has better quarters than any other office in the Territory.

Billy Brewster, one of the Opera house favorites, is to be given a benefit Tuesday night.

The Sunday edition of the JOURNAL will be enlarged to eight pages in about two weeks.

The advertised letter list of the branch post-office in old town appears in this morning's Journal.

Remember that this is Sunday and the post office will be open only between the hours of 9 and 10 P. M.

Last night was the coldest of the season and the thermometer was considerably below the freezing point.

Torlina, the gent's furnishing goods man, comes out this morning with another brand new advertisement.

Go to church to-day for a change. People of almost any religious persuasion can now be satisfied in Albuquerque.

The Methodist Sunday school has fifty-seven scholars in regular attendance, and the number is being increased each week.

Both Democrats and Republicans were jollying last night, both claiming the election of delegate. Wonder who'll win?

The Atlantic & Pacific railroad company has 1,500,000 more ties than is necessary to complete the road to the Colorado river.

The number of boxes in the post-office will have to be increased. Every one is now taken and there is a demand for more.

Deforest Porter, the defeated Republican candidate for delegate to Congress from Arizona, arrived in Albuquerque yesterday.

Bell & Co., the cyclone grocers have something to say to The Journal readers in their new display advertisement this morning. Read it.

Ilford & Co. certainly have the handsomest set of clerks in town, and if anybody doubts this assertion, they have only to see that photograph and be convinced.

A. L. Saugre, proprietor of the Second street second hand store, is now at Nutt street purchasing a prospectors outfit. He has a mine which he proposes to work.

While Francisco A. Manzanarez was in town yesterday, he took the privilege of calling on and personally thanking Al Connors, for the work Al had done in Albuquerque.

C. R. Williams, general freight and passenger agent, of the Atlantic & Pacific road, was suddenly called back from his eastern trip by a dispatch from Superintendent Smith.

Sabino Valencia, the painter living in the old town, had his hen robbed of about forty hens Friday night. He has, as yet, been unable to discover who the thieves are.

Wash Lothrop, of this city, has rediscovered an old Spanish mine near Rincon which is reported to be very rich. The old shaft goes down to a great depth through a body of very rich ore.

The Democrats of Bernalillo county do not claim a victory because of the election of the county tickets, but on the contrary are disgusted with themselves for having anything to do with the fusion business.

The Texas, Santa Fe and Northern railroad will be ready for business February 1, 1883, and already advertising pamphlets expounding the attractions of the country which it traverses, are being circulated.

Hazen's youth of the Democrat got Mrs. M. Holdaway, the grocer, and George Holladay, the saloon man, a little mixed in his mind? Look again, THE JOURNAL did not say M. Holdaway was to occupy Greenleaf's building.

Usually the gas furnished by the Albuquerque Gas company has been excellent and furnished a good light, but of late it has been growing bad and makes a miserable light. If it is not improved the company will be apt to lose a good share of its custom.

A Journal correspondent, writing from Nutt, says: Norman C. Raff came in from Kingston to-night and reports Kingston to be booming. He has purchased one of the best located lots in town, and has a bank building under contract. He goes to El Paso tomorrow and will return to Albuquerque Sunday morning.

The sidewalk and porch in front of N. T. Armijo's building on Railroad avenue, sank almost out of sight yesterday. One of the stores in the building has been occupied for sometime as a flour and feed store, and they have been in the habit of keeping quite a large lot of hay and grain on the porch, the consequence is that yesterday the supports refused to stand it any longer and give way under the load.

FRANK MANZANARES.

An Interview with the Democratic Candidate.

He Claims the Territory By a Majority of 1,500.

Extensive Frauds Alleged to Have Been Committed.

The Vote of Valencia County Will Certainly Be Contested.

Francisco Manzanares and W. T. Thornton came up from Los Lunas yesterday afternoon. They have been looking after Valencia county to see that no frauds are perpetrated there, and to collect evidence of frauds that might be committed by the returning boards that county. A Journal reporter in an interview with Mr. Manzanares and Mr. Thornton asked them regarding the result of the count in the Territory, and upon what figures they relied to insure the election of Mr. Manzanares.

"We do not desire to have our estimate by counties made public," said Mr. Thornton, "but we claim Manzanares' election by 1,500 majority, conceding to Luna a majority of 2,000 in Valencia county."

"What will your majority in San Miguel county be?"

"Not less than 1,100," answered Mr. Thornton.

"It will go considerably above that figure," confidently asserted the Democratic candidate.

"In your estimates how do you figure on Socorro county?"

"We leave it out altogether. It is still uncertain and will not give a majority either way to exceed fifty."

"What about Valencia county?"

"There," replied Mr. Manzanares, "every evidence of fraud exists and it is our intention to prosecute fraudulent officers to the full extent of the law. In fifteen precincts, thus far returned, the books show a majority for Luna of 2,973 with ten precincts to hear from."

In speaking of the officers whose duty it would be to prosecute election officers accused of fraud, Mr. Manzanares said Sydney M. Barnes, United States District Attorney, a very high compliment. He said he believed him to be strictly honest and felt very confident that in the performance of his official duty he would not waver, whether the accused be Republican or Democrat.

Throughout Valencia county the Democrats have had detectives at work collecting evidence on which to base a contest, and it is claimed that the grossest frauds have been discovered.

There is now but little doubt that a majority will be returned for Luna, but Manzanares will make a contest and he claims to have enough evidence to throw out a sufficient portion of the Valencia county vote to leave him a clear majority.

Valencia County Court. Several interesting cases have come before Judge Bell during the week, while he has been sitting at Los Lunas. One of the cases was that against a number of Pueblo Indians who had been arrested on the charge of stealing sheep from C. W. Lewis. This is the first case of the kind on record, no Pueblo's ever having been brought into a county court upon a criminal charge. The case was tried yesterday afternoon. The jury has not yet decided as to the guilt or innocence of the accused.

In the Sanchez murder case an indictment has been found by the grand jury, and yesterday an application for a change of venue was made. Judge Bell took the matter under advisement and will decide sometime during the first of the week.

A number of minor cases were disposed of by the District Attorney, and this was about all the business transacted.

When Stein, Mandell & Co.'s store was robbed some months ago, an overcoat belonging to Mr. Sanders of the Atlantic & Pacific offices, which had been left hanging in the store, was taken with the other stolen articles. Yesterday the accommodating thief knowing full well that the time for using overcoats had arrived, left a package in Mr. Sanders' office, on opening which, Mr. S. was surprised to see the long lost overcoat.

There will be preaching in the Congregational church this morning at 11 o'clock, and this evening at 7 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. J. M. Ashley. Sunday school at 10 o'clock A. M. Prof. A. S. McPherson superintendent.

The Catholic Bishop of Colorado, the Right Reverend G. P. Machefou, will pass through Albuquerque to-day and there will be an appropriate celebration at the church in old town this morning. Bishop Machefou came to Santa Fe in 1850 with Bishop Lamy and traveled extensively through the Territories of New Mexico and Arizona during the succeeding ten years doing ecclesiastical work. He is now over seventy-one years old and is one of the most honored and respected Bishops of the Catholic church.

PERSONAL PENCILINGS.

George Moore, of Wallace, was in town yesterday.

William Meredith, Copper City, is in town for a few days.

C. L. Flagg, New York City, is a guest at the Rio Grande.

Maj. Minor, the tie inspector, came in from Arizona yesterday morning.
